

High sense of humor with an old woman

It was narrated that an old woman asked him to pray for her so that she would enter God's paradise. Muhammad replied in a non serious way: "There are no old women in the God's Paradise." She misunderstood what he said and got confused. But soon he elaborated: "You will be young when you enter the Paradise" (and all people will be).